Heritage Funeral Service terms of business

We require full payment at the time of arrangement for both the Direct Cremation Funeral option and the Attended Direct Funeral Option. Payment will be required two days in advance for our Essential Funeral Service option. For all other funerals we require payment in advance of all third party fees. Following the funeral service we will send you a final invoice confirming the total cost of the funeral within 14 days of the funeral. The final invoice will be itemised so that you can see clearly what we arranged for you, and what you must pay for. Any payments you have already made to us in advance of the funeral will be subtracted from the final invoice and the final balance will be shown clearly on the invoice. You must pay the final invoice as soon as you receive it or within a thirty day period. You can pay by cash, cheque, debit/credit card or bank transfer. Heritage Funeral Service reserve the right to charge 8% a year for any overdue amounts. Please see our full terms and conditions for more details.

Ownership and declaration of interests

Heritage Funeral Service is owned since its founding in 2012 by Craig Brown, Judith Powell & Susan Powell. Heritage Funeral Service does not have any business or material financial interest in price comparison websites that compare funeral director services or crematoria services and their respective prices. Heritage Funeral Service made no charitable donations to third parties connected to the funeral sector in the last twelve months.
